"What would your diary or journal say about your walk with Christ?"

December is a busy month, but we would like to challenge you! Would you make an entry in your diary, journal, day-timer, blackberry (or whatever you use), regarding your help to carry the message of the Cross to your sphere of influence?

Tell us what you are going to do...just a quick e-mail.
We are looking forward to reading your idea.

Dear friends and followers of Jesus,

It is awesome and exciting to now have a team helping carry "The Cross" and the message of the cross into the bookstores and movie theaters of America and then the world. You are spreading the word on the Internet and e-mail and by sharing with your friends, family and strangers. I am so proud of you.

In the book "The Cross" published by Authentic Books that comes out in early January I began each chapter with an excerpt from my diary. Each week I will be sharing one of these with you as we focus on the cross in all parts of the world. It is a very moving look into my life on the road and how I faced difficulty, danger and had the awesome experience of seeing first hand the power of the cross and the Presence of Jesus in my life and in others. You will weep and shout as you follow this journey. This will also give you some of the emotion and true experiences of following Jesus in today's world.

To me I rest in two simple things. Jesus said "All power is given to me in heaven and in earth...Go! I Am with you Always!" These weekly thoughts will help you see how I faced life and saw the world and how Jesus led me to live out His mission and purpose...'one step at a time'.

Here is a taste of what is to come.

"I can hardly contain the exploding joy of my spirit within my body. The road behind me helps me to better travel the road ahead. I am laying in this barn on the hay and look forward to the new day about to dawn. I can see the smiling faces and the weeping eyes rushing to the cross!"

This is also a foretaste of a look into the movie. We are going to lift our eyes to the whole world as we pray for a different area each week.

We love you all. Keep up the witness,

Pilgrim followers of Jesus,

Arthur and Denise Blessitt
