

THE CROSS

THE ARTHUR BLESSITT STORY

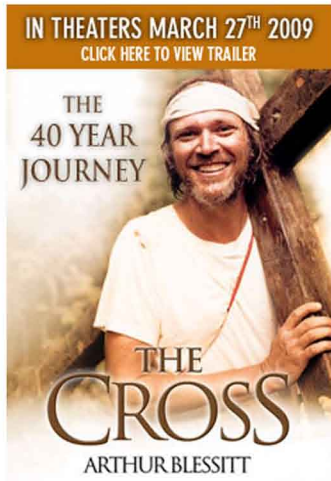

In Theaters March 27th, 2009

Send in wallet size photos of unsaved family and friends or their names for us to put on the cross!

Greetings fellow followers of Jesus and co-laborers in carrying the cross and the message of the cross to the world!

Thank you for e-mailing others, posting on your website or MySpace or FaceBook, etc.

One suggestion is for you to call your local movie theaters and ask if you can buy tickets now for "The Cross". This will help start the buzz about the movie. You can do the same with your bookstore for the book. You can also send a text message on your cell phone to all your friends.

In each newsletter now I will give excerpts from all around the world.

Let's pray for America this week. This is taken from my new book coming out in January 09:

"First Day, Hollywood, California December 25, 1969

The sounds of the city night fill my ears and the memories of today fill my mind. My aching pained body and my blistered feet remind me of my humanity.

I never dreamed carrying a cross would be like this, Lord.

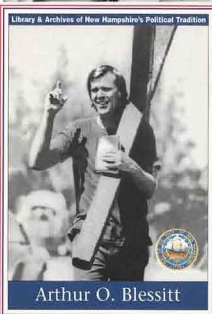

Oh, I need you Jesus. Have mercy on me. I've never been a sportsman and now I'm heading across America. I'm thrilled! I feel the excitement of the unknown and I'm ready to take the Jesus Movement from coast to coast. It's also frightening but I will not be deterred from Your will.

You are with me and Your presence is enough. It's been a wild day but people prayed and I can still smile. I love you, Lord!"

As I have carried the cross, people from all over the world have wanted to put their prayer request for loved ones on the cross. I just could not accommodate this request as I was walking in the rain and weather. Matt Crouch along with Paul and Jan Crouch discussed with me the idea of having people from all over the world:

Send in wallet size photos of unsaved family and friends or their names for us to put on the cross!

As I lay on the floor praying about this I could only weep. I could see a cross covered a foot thick with tens of thousands of people's names and photos covering it and millions of believers praying for their salvation. It would put the focus on Jesus and the real meaning of why Jesus died on the cross...that we could be saved through His shed Blood.

Thursday night, March 26th 09, on "The Praise the Lord" Program, the cross will be displayed with the photos and names of loved ones. On this night, there will be a world-wide harvest for these souls to be saved! Wow! I can hardly contain myself.

Please get your list of unsaved people to us and or photos so we can put them on the cross and lift them up in a believing prayer to Jesus! I know we will be hearing back even before that time, that multitudes are being saved. Remember this "Prayer Cross" will be up all during the Easter season. We are building a special cross just for this.

E-mail me today so we can start covering the cross with people that need to know the Lord Jesus as their Savior and Lord. Glory.

God bless you,
More next week, and share Jesus with someone today!

A MESSAGE FROM ARTHUR'S DAUGHTER, GENA, TO HER FATHER

Hey Dad,

As for the question: Were we suffering as we grew up traveling the world?

The answer comes quick & easy...

"I never knew suffering till I stopped traveling the world!"

There is a safety, a joy, a sense of purpose... a comfort in living every day in the will and plan of God, it's not hard! As a child I never felt afraid, or unsettled, just because we didn't have a "house" that we lived in, I knew nothing else... I thought it odd much of the time when people would ask me this same question!

I later got a glimpse of their point of view... as I was introduced to fear and insecurity for the first time in public school, where I saw the "Clicks" of people and I did not fit in to any of them!! As I grew up and went to Bible school, I saw for the first time the divisions in Christians... That Baptist and Assembly of God were at odds... Etc!!!

Growing up in the way of the Cross, the world was... one... people were... one ...Churches ...were one!!!

I have now as an adult found that peace and joy again in a life lived every day... Surrendered to the way of the Cross, set apart from houses, churches, jobs, or approval! Only lived step by step with Him in peace!!!

Your fellow disciple of Jesus... Gena Blessitt

We need your help...

in letting the theaters know that "The Cross" is coming!

You can call or write. If calling a well known theatre chain like AMC or Mann, it is best to go to their website for their corporate number. If calling a smaller theater, it is best to call the theater direct & asking for a manager. Tell them you are excited about the film and ask if it will be playing there. The word will spread to their corporate office and they'll know that we are coming with The Cross!
