

THE CROSS

THE ARTHUR BLESSITT STORY

The Movie in Theaters March 27th, 2009

We need your help...

in letting the theaters know that "The Cross" is coming!

You can call or write. If calling a well known theater chain like AMC or Mann, it is best to go to their website for their corporate number. If calling a smaller theater, it is best to call the theater directly and ask for a manager. Tell them you are excited about the film and ask if it will be playing there. The word will spread to their corporate office and they'll know that we are coming with The Cross!

Watch the Television Series

"The Message of The Cross" Television Series is now airing on the Trinity Broadcasting Network and on www.tbn.org

The comments today are very important with the conflict in Gaza raging. The battle of Beirut, Lebanon was almost the same back in 1982.

"Ambassadors of Peace in a world of War"
Chapter 7 from my diary in "The Cross".

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God" Matthew 5:9

"I can't sleep tonight as bombs explode and guns fire all around us. But Joshua is asleep. We've had nothing to eat and I'm so hungry. Looking back on this day I tremble.

I walked through a minefield and a battlefield with my young son. It was unreal, like Abraham leading his son up the mountain to die, you saved Isaac and you saved Joshua. No matter how much fear I felt today, I knew that not trying would be worse than dying. I cannot live with having stopped short of doing what you tell me to do. Lord I felt almost numb as we walked through the fighting armies, but Joshua was so strong and had the glory of the Lord on his face.

Oh Jesus, you led us right into the arms of Yasser Arafat and had us pray for him. Joshua and I held our crosses with Arafat between us. You let the sinners touch you, hold you, and kiss you.

The cross and I are supposed to be in the center of conflict and need, where life and death are raging and do your will. I suppress all my emotions, fears, desires, and dreams and step out into the madness with a smile, peace and Jesus.

This was truly church today! Pews were foxholes with people huddled behind barricades, the lights were bombs bursting, the choir was the sound of explosions with the screams of the wounded and dying. The sanctuary was full of tracer bullets, screeching rockets, and men shouting. But everyone was interested and welcomed us, the cross and Jesus."

Idea of how to help spread the word about this life-changing outreach event?

Today in this diary entry we see the call of Jesus to leave our comfort zone and take the cross and Jesus into the midst of human need even to the door of death itself.

Walking with my son Joshua we carried the cross in and through the battlefield and lifted it up!

You can do the same!

Matt Crouch and the Gener8Xion Entertainment team are doing a great job with the film and promoting it. TBN is awesome in their promotion of the film. Many of the most popular Christian TV programs have taped programs with me to be aired soon. We have a great support team. The word is getting out.

One final request ...PRAY!
